TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 31.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the twentieth annual exhibition of the Loudoun County Agricultural Society, at Locaburg, on September 21, 22, and 23.

The republican campaign committee assert that they have so arranged matters as to secure possession of the next House of Representatives, and in their exculations put down a gain of three or four from Virginia, in consequence of the Mehorite movement in this State. That genuine application. there are some men in Virginia still professing to be democrats who will do all in their power to sustain this assertion everybody knows, but that there ere a safficient number to accomplish the object is among the impossibilities.

According to our Washington correspondent democratic success in Maine seems improbable. Well, it would be almost unnatural if it were otherwise. In a national contest men in Maine as well as men in Virginia will vote according to their old party affiliations. The republican greenbacters in Maire like the republican readjusters is Virginia will vote for Carfield, while the democratic procebackers in Maine and the demecratic readjusters in Virginia will vote fer Hanczek, at i as there are more republican this demecra.io greenbackers in Meine it is highly probable that State will go repetliese. There are elso more republicat than at 31 cents per pound. This arrivel is two democratis readja ters in Virgioia, but still not naough to defeat the large democratic majority in this State. Biole'my Sherman made a speech at Cineinnali 'ast right, ic which he waved the bleedy shirt vigo overy and performed other radica tricks w' h the dex'nity of the most experivaced ex ert. He seid neither Providerce sor the democratic party had any hand in the revived prospec's and business of the country. repeated the bistory of the kuklux, and said they were only waiting the election of Harcock to recommence their prescribed work of killing negroes; accused the South of fraud in bulldizing the negroes away from election polls and in stealing the few ballots they did east; said all Southern claims would be paid upon the raturn of the democracy to power; that rebels would command the army and pavy if Garfiell was defeated, and that business, credit, crops, industry, broks, money and every interest of the country would go to the bow-wows, and bloody handed rebels, mounted on horses with tails curled, ride rough shed over both the liberties of the people and what they are pleased to call the mudsills of the North, if the second rebellion, now in progress, was not crushed, and himself and his party retained in possession of the government, or words to that effect. He feiled to say that the ficancial cresh and business prostra on in this country · courred after twelve years of republican rule and corruption, and that the revival did not commence until after the democrats | their boneymoon, Prince Roland holds a comgot porsession of one branch of Congress; that the kuklux were created by the union leagues, established by the carpet-baggers, at whose midnight meetings the ignorant negree: were incited to e'l manner of hate and devile. y against their former owners; neither did be explain the fast of the terrorizing inflaence of soldiers at the polls, nor the brazen-faced robbary of the votes of three whole States, and of his cwo pert therein, including the oath he took before his God that he did not recollect writing the Weber letter, and the black mail he has to pay the Jenks' family for not refreshing his mem ory on that point. He did not tell his hearers that before Southern claims could be raid the Northern States, voting by States, on an emend ment to the Constitution, would have to agree to such pryment, and that so far from there being any darger of ex-rebely being in command of the army and navy, not a single to the dispiny of a metropolitan rec, with Alton one of them can Lold the smallest office under the government without having his disabilities removed by a special ret of Cengress. Mr. Sherman forgot to tell his audience all this. He also forgot to explain how it is that when he came to Washington in the public service not many years ago he was so poor that a subscription was raised for his bene fit, and that though his salary never has been large, never enough for him to save any of it, he is now a millionaire. Mr. Sherman is fight- lorg editorials, soldem profit these who have ing hard to re'ain his place at the head of the to do with them. Life is short, time is short, Treasury under Grefield, and is now, what he has always been, utterly unserupulous in the means he employs to gain his ends. He is noted, however, for his dark ways and vain tricks, and people who hear him have long since learned to doubt what he says unless corroborated by more reliable witnesses. The effect of his last right's speech upon the crowd

who heard it was utterly destroyed by a courthe port of New York.

A republican firm in the North, employing a large number of hands, have addressed a circa lar to all the men in their service, intimating that unless they vote for Garfield they had better get cut and let their places be filled by others who will. This may or may not be bulldezieg, but that it is just as effective nobody entertairs a doubt.

Sems of the Mahonites have attempted to raise a great to do about the loss of thirty odd thousand o'd coupons from the office of the Second Auditor. As every coupon has to be stamped by the c. licotor who receives it, and as that stamping renders it utterly worthless, the State would not suffer if the loss had been thirty million instead of thirty thousand. But notwithstanding this the lesses in and about the Treasury of the State have been entirely too numerous of late years, and a system should be adopted there that will render them impos sible in the fature.

Some republican newspapers that are not well posted in the history of their party say the representatives of repudiating constituencies are not the sort of persons who should be entiusted with the care of the public credit. But as repudiation was never carried in any other portion of the country to the extent it has reached in the republican | Thurday evening, September 9, when his sub States of Michigan, Minnesota and Massachusetts, and as the greenbackers want to repudiate by paying the national dobt in paper money, to whom can the public eredit be entrusted but House in the meanwhile is being put in order. the democrats?

The republicies attempt to offset their own charges of implication to the Credit Mobilier recovered consciousness since the attack on Satand DeGolyer frauds against their own candi date for President by accasing the democratic candidate of favoring a proposition, that exists no where but in radical imagination, for pensioning "ex-rebels." It will be time enough to thick about pensioning "rebels" when they ask to be pensioned. And then, too, a fraudulent application for a pension, written in the North and by a republican and sent South to be mailed for partisan effect, must not be mistrken for a

A BONAPARTE'S BRIDE.-It would appear that the vehement opposition offered by the Bonaparte family to the engagement contracted some months ago by Prince Roland Bonaparte and Mile Blanc, principal heiress to the enormous fortune am: sed by the late high pricst of rouge et poir, has proved fruitless, and that the wedding day of the happy pair is fixed for the let of October next. Sagacity of a Dog.

About 21 years ago an extraordinary war wer waged against the canine inhibitants of Port wouth, M. H., and a great number died by poisioned food thrown into the street. A. gentleman who owned a highly prized pointer, fearing that his deg might also become a victim. determined to send him out of reach of the danger. He there fire gave him to Captain Hemen Kldredge, of the New York Preket Company, who took the dag to New York on board his vessel. There he was sold to a gentlemen was a mired his remarkable beauty and intelligence. The purchaser carried the dog to his residence on Staten Island and tied him in his yar, included by a seven foot fence, where he w. fed and petted to make him happy.

The gentleman was surprised the next more-

The gentleman was curprised the next morning when he found Bruno had gnawed off his rope, cleared the fence and escaped. Not being willing to part with his newly acquired property so suddenly, he went immediately to New York and hestened to Coenties saip to Captain Eldredge, but the vessel had sailed for Portsmouth. He then went to the efficact the packet company and asked if anythedy there had been company, and asked if anybody there had room nearly all the dem the deg. INDERITED ANTIPATITIES .- Cows hate degs instinctively, from their carliest cafaoed upward. We used to doubt ones upon a time whether the haired was not of artificial origin and wholly induced by the inveterate human habit of egging on every dog to won a every other animal that comes in its way. But we tried a mild experiment one day by putting a half grown town bred puppy into a small enthe refliction is a drought which, with a visita- closure with some hitherto uswerried calves, tion from the green worm and chintz bug, has and they all turned to make a common headway against the intruder with the same striking unanimity as the most ascient and experienced cows. The trade at wholesale w more scrive and prices higher than is: week, and in the retail market tops only showed weer, and in the relate market tops only showed sympathy with the wholesale trade on account of their secrety, and prices, on to quality for them, were 12 albert higher than last week Medium and common cattle were without material change.

Milch Cows-There is en improved inquiry for good cows. We quote at 20a$10 per has for good cows. We quote at 20ap 10 per hand to quality.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade has been fair this week for all kinds of good steek, whether bute er sheer, lambs or stock sheep, while cem any grades have found but a poor market. Gust stock was not plentiful this week, which in part contents for the freedom, of trade. We got accounts for the freedom of trade. We got butcher sheep at 31s43 et; stock sheep 1 10453 each, or 3.37cts per lb, country dealers buying freely. Lambs 4sf lcts per lb gross. Attract this week 6497 head.

Hegs-The offering his week, though several hundred short of those of last week, though several hundred short of those of last week, are generally in excess of the domand, chieff because of their character, which is not in accordance with the wants of the butchers just now. The receipts consist largely of grass hogs, which have been increasing in their proportions for several weeks past, but few good hogs this week being among the offerings. There are in good demand at our top prices. We quote common and grass here at 61 arcents, and good to extra choice at 7a71c if free shipments of grassers continue. Arriva's this week 5160 head.
